Adamczyk stated that there were about 50 citizens that attended the tree lighting on November 29th. Maps are available for the lighting contest that will run through December 29th. The shed at the ice rink is partially assembled and should be available by the time the ice is good.

Comprehensive Planning Committee:

Dan DeMoulin, Vice Chair of the Comp Plan, presented two land applications.

Land Division Parcel #042-390300212A – Owner McGuire. This property had been resurveyed in 2017 and divided 4 acres from a larger parcel. The property is zoned RR and each lot will be 2 acres. The division is being made for insurance purposes. The land division proposal meets the local ordinance standards, the proposal agrees with the town vision statement as found in the Town Comprehensive Plan and the proposal agrees with the town goals, objectives and development strategies
